Honors and AP Classes

Students will have an abundance of opportunities to challenge themselves at the very highest academic levels. Advanced Placement (AP) classes are offered in every discipline and include Chemistry, two levels of Calculus, Government and Politics, English Literature and Composition, Spanish, French, and Studio Art.

STEM

Students will go beyond the classroom offerings and dive into their STEM interests, choosing the path that works best for them to complete the requirements. This includes independent studies, networking with STEM professionals, engaging in clubs and special events, and taking a wide variety of STEM classes.

Social Justice

Designed for students who wish to explore issues of equity, whether focused on economics, race, gender, the environment, or any host of justice concerns, this concentration encourages students to participate in their local and global communities through activism, volunteerism, and learning. Students are required to take a certain number of courses to fulfill the academic requirement and are expected to participate in and lead activities. These will include school-based clubs, presentations to the school community, service rooted in social justice, and a capstone project.
